What we do

We have been together as a team for over two years with 15 years + combined recruitment experience. We are passionate about the not-for-profit sector which makes recruiting in this space highly rewarding. As a team we cover the whole HR remit from HR admin through to HR director and C suite level. In addition we have specialist consultants that focus on the reward, payroll and executive level remits. We offer a tailored service and can provide you with permanent, fixed term and temporary solutions for your organisation.

About the team

Beyond our fundamental services, we're distinguished by our additional value events, such as the mental health awareness events we've held. We have the privilege of retaining work and producing branded adverts specifically tailored for the Royal Household, reflecting our dedication to excellence and bespoke service. We aim to provide a holistic and enriched experience for all our stakeholders.

What our clients say

Thank you Louise for never leaving me questioning, chasing or frustrated, job hunting is hard enough without those added to the mix! If only all recruiters valued these as much as you do! Thank you for putting me into my dream role, I am enjoying every second of it and hope I am lucky enough to be placed by yourself again when this contract is up! Many thanks for all you have done and continue to do.

Amelia, thank you very much for all your support during my employment with the Big Issue. You were very helpful at all stages: before the interview and during my time at the Big Issue. I would definitely be in touch again when (and if) it will be my time to move on to something different.
